Family Engagement for Beginning & Struggling Readers

Dear Educator,

Treasure Bay is the leading source of books designed to support family engagement in reading for beginning and struggling readers. Something as simple as parents and children reading together can have a remarkable impact on educational outcomes, particularly for struggling readers.

Our books maximize family engagement by making it fun for parents to get involved and easy for them to support their children's reading. Research-confirmed results include dramatic increases in parent support, improved reading scores, and students who are more excited about reading and engaged in learning.

We now have 43 series for students from Pre-K through 8th grade. The books are usually placed in classrooms, and teachers send the books home for students to read with their parents. Many schools also give the books to students to start or supplement a home library. In addition, our books are used extensively in school classrooms to support reading and learning loss recovery.

We have many new titles and collections, including ones for phonics support, social & emotional learning, struggling readers, and English-language learners. I sincerely hope you will take this opportunity to place an order and maximize the benefits of family engagement in reading for your school or district. If you have any questions, please call us at (800) 476-6416 or e-mail Help@TreasureBayBooks.com.

With my best regards,

Don Panec, Publisher

The #1 Series for Family Engagement in Reading

- Particularly effective with reluctant and struggling readers
- Significantly improves reading scores (see page 7)
- Dramatically increases family engagement in reading
- Used by over 10,000 schools and over 4,000 Title I programs
- Also available in bilingual English/Spanish editions (see pgs. 16-18)

The We Both Read books are so highly effective because they engage both children and parents in reading—and make it easy for them to be successful. The concept of the series is simple: each book is specially formatted for a parent and child to take turns reading alternate pages aloud. The parent’s pages feature higher-level text (at about a 5th-grade reading level), while the child’s pages feature text that matches the child’s reading level.

This shared experience reduces the frustrations of beginning and struggling readers—and makes reading fun! Children get to practice reading at their skill level and they also have the opportunity to relax and listen as the fluent reading of more complex text is modeled for them. The result is increased comprehension, fluency, and support for their decoding skills, along with increased enthusiasm for reading.

Most schools provide sets of the books for classroom libraries, with teachers sending appropriate levels of books home on a lending basis. However, some schools provide these books to students and parents to help supplement or begin a home library. Plus, We Both Read has proven to be just as effective when used in the classroom for tutored-reading and buddy-reading programs.

Research Results: Using We Both Read

Almost Triple the Increase in DIBELS Fluency Scores Confirmed by Independent Research

A large independent research study in four states has confirmed the effectiveness of the We Both Read series in improving fluency and reading scores. The study compared use of We Both Read for at-home reading versus other materials used by schools, including basal readers, leveled readers, and trade books. Among participants (reading at least 30 minutes per week with their parents), the use of the We Both Read series resulted in significantly greater improvement in their DIBELS oral reading fluency score.

Compared to participants using other at-home reading materials, the participants using the We Both Read series scored almost triple the increase in fluency improvement. The study also showed that use of the We Both Read series resulted in more independent reading time and significantly improved children's attitudes about reading. Plus, 100% of the teachers participating in the study reported that the paired reading format of the series proved to be a significant factor in increasing at-home reading time.

Dragons Do Not Get Scared!

SE Social and Emotional Learning

Written with the help of a child psychologist, this book about two young dragons can help support parents and children in discussing some of the fears that children often experience.

In the story, Benny and Dean are going to spend their first night away from home without their parents. Benny is looking forward to going to his grandmother's house, but he's nervous about being away from home. His brother Dean doesn't seem nervous, but when they're alone at night, both Benny and Dean may discover that sometimes dragons do get a little scared.

Penguins

Science consultant: Emma Kocina, biologist at the California Academy of Sciences

NF Nonfiction

In this book, students will meet lots of different kinds of penguins and learn how they live and survive. The book explores where penguins live—from freezing Antarctica to the warm beaches of the Galapagos islands. Students will learn about how penguins make nests and how some penguins, instead of using a nest, keep their eggs warm on top of their feet. The book is full of fascinating information about penguins, and your students will have fun learning about these amazing birds that fly through the water instead of the air!

Spanish • English Bilingual Editions

Our 43 Spanish/English Bilingual Editions feature the same “paired reading” format as the English Editions, but the text is in both English and Spanish on each page. This makes these books perfect for students to read at home with parents who read Spanish but little or no English.

The books are also popular for use in school, particularly for Spanish and Bilingual programs. Plus, with text in both languages, children as well as their parents have the opportunity to increase their English vocabulary and practice their skills in reading English.

Our We Both Read books are now available in bilingual editions for Chinese/English, Arabic/English, and French/English. Like our Spanish/English editions on pages 16-18, these new bilingual editions feature the same “take-turns reading” format as the English editions. On each page, the text is in two languages, so parents and students can read in either language. This makes the books perfect for use in homes where English is not the primary language.

With text in two languages, both parents and students can increase their vocabulary and reading skills in either language. The books are also ideal for use in school to support English-language learners, as well as students in bilingual and foreign-language programs.

These bilingual editions are in sets of 10 titles for each language, with levels for students from Pre-K through middle elementary (English guided-reading levels from AA to L). Titles in each set are: About Dogs (nonfiction), About Space (nonfiction), Dragons Do Not Share, Endangered Animals (nonfiction), Habitats of the World (nonfiction), How Many (nonfiction), The Ocean (nonfiction), Three Little Pigs, Too Many Cats, and The Well-Mannered Monster.

A Comprehensive Series of Decodable Readers in Sequential Sets

• Ideal for Decodable Reading Practice at Home •

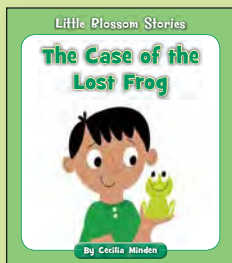

This large and superbly written series of decodable readers was created by Dr. Cecilia Minden, the former director of the Language and Literacy Program at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Phonics is one of the main components in the science of reading, and decodable books can provide essential support in practicing phonics skills. These Little Blossom books are not only decodable, they also contain engaging illustrations and stories that students will enjoy reading. Plus, the books are short enough for students to bring home and read multiple times with their parents.

Treasure Bay provides this series in a sequenced progression from Short Vowel Intro Readers through Ambiguous Vowel Combinations. Every book in these exclusive collections is stickered on the back with a set number and color, making it easy for teachers and students to select books at specific levels of decoding skills. Each sticker also includes short information on the phonics skills the book is designed to support.

We have nine sets of Little Blossom Phonics Readers available with a total of 102 titles. Each 16-page book includes a decodable story, along with information on words and phonics patterns used in the book.

Books with engaging decodable stories in sequential groups of progressing phonics skills:

PIONEER VALLEY Phonics Storybooks

For Gr. K to 3

150 Titles!

Decodable Books in a Scaffolded Sequence for Classroom Use or Family Engagement at Home

Treasure Bay has three unique sets of Pioneer Valley Storybooks, totaling 150 books, which will provide decoding support throughout any school's course of phonics instruction. The books are very high-quality decodable readers that have been carefully aligned to a rigorous scope and sequence in phonics. Each book provides readers with abundant opportunities to transfer newly acquired phonics skills to an authentic reading context. Every set features books with diverse characters in engaging stories with gorgeous illustrations, as well as some nonfiction books with interesting subjects and beautiful photography.

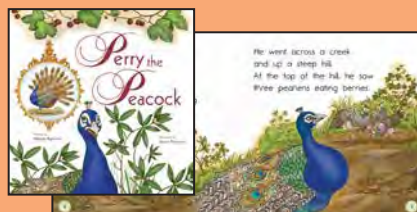

We have divided the collection into three sequential sets. The On Our Way set focuses on short vowels, initial/final digraphs, and initial blends. The Building Up set focuses on final blends, long vowels, and vowel teams. And the Moving On & Lifting Off set provides practice with vowel-r combinations, complex blends, diphthongs, and common prefixes and suffixes.

All the books in this amazing collection are numbered on the back in sequential order, and each book focuses on practice of a specific phonics skill (e.g. long vowel "ee" or digraph "th"). For a complete scope and sequence chart for these books, which shows the specific phonics focus by title, go to TreasureBayBooks.com/PioneerPhonicsScope.

DK Learning Decodable Adventures

Gr. 2 to 6

56 Titles!

Decodable Books for Older Students

Many struggling readers in grades 2 to 6 would benefit from the use of decodable readers. However, most decodable books are designed with very little text, often with simplistic stories that do not appeal to older students. The DK Learning Decodable Adventure series are different: these are easy to read decodable books with more text and exciting stories, specifically designed to capture the interest of older elementary students!

We have three collections at different levels of reading skill, all of which offer exciting adventure stories that are truly decodable. Each series in these collections features young multi-ethnic characters and a storyline with a plot that builds throughout the color-coded and numbered books in the series. These books are perfect to provide reading support for struggling readers with decodable text and action-filled stories that will motivate your students to read.

Each book may include one or more of the following: word list, glossary, phonics game, comprehension questions, or suggestions to parents on using the book with their child.

Engaging Families with Reading and Mathematics

(and showing how math can be fun and relevant in our everyday lives)

MathStart is a unique series of educational readers designed for family engagement that integrates reading with mathematics and STEM programs. It has been a hit with thousands of schools and teachers, and it has won numerous awards and accolades, including Booklist's Top-Ten Nonfiction Series for Young Children.

The books are ideal to use as take-home books for parents to read with students, and every book includes fun extension activities for families to do together. When used as part of a family engagement program, parents can read the books aloud or read them together with their children, as well as help discuss the math concepts covered in each book.

Each title offers an engaging and usually humorous story that helps illustrate a specific math concept and shows how it has applications in everyday life. Various titles cover graphing, telling time, estimating, comparing, rounding, map reading, and much more. The series, which is broken down into three levels, helps support all of the NCTM Standards for Pre-K through Grade 4.

HIGH-LOW COLLECTIONS for Struggling Readers

These high-interest, low-reading-level series are all specifically designed for reluctant and struggling readers who are reading below grade level. The books have subjects that will grab students' attention and text that is carefully leveled, yet highly engaging.

The use of images, info-graphics, design elements, and visuals are designed to sustain interest and increase comprehension. These well-researched and well-written collections are must-haves to get your reluctant and struggling readers reading at home and at school.

45th Parallel High-Low

Designed for Grades 4 to 8 — with Text at a 3rd Grade Reading Level

Set #: HL-PAR-32

45th Parallel is a leading series of high-low books, and we have chosen the best and most popular books in the series to create this superb collection for students reading below grade level. These nonfiction, high-low books are written by curriculum specialists with an eye toward making the text very accessible for struggling readers. Guided reading levels range from O to R, though the text is easier to read than these levels indicate. The books all use short sentences, short chapters, and carefully controlled vocabulary (with explanations of uncommon words cleverly embedded within the text).

Titles all include a table of contents, an index, a glossary, and questions to think about after reading.

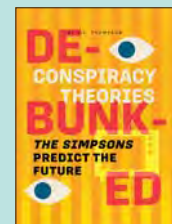

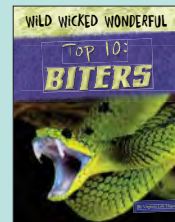

They need to Prey's inside

Scorpions are related to spiders. They have pincers. Pincers are claws. They're for grabbing.

Definitions cleverly included in the text!

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS Nonfiction Levelled Paperbacks

Gr. PK to 6

116 Titles!

Each National Geographic Kids book pairs magnificent photographs with engaging text that has been developed in consultation with early education experts. Our exclusive curated collections feature the very best books and series from National Geographic. Each of the collections is tailored for different grades and reading levels.

The National Geographic Kids Readers collections offer the widest range of reading levels. Our four leveled collections of this series offer books from Guided Reading Level E to P. For more advanced readers, we recommend the National Geographic Kids Chapter Books, as well as the collection of Weird But True titles.

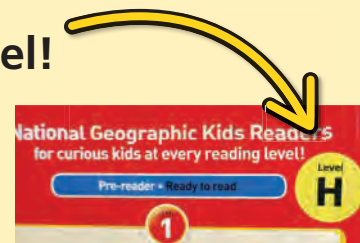

We also offer the Explore My World collection, which includes books on animals and topics that are of high interest to younger students. The text and format of these books make them ideal for parents to read together with children from Pre-K to Grade 2 (with a parent taking the lead in reading with children in grades Pre-K or K).

All of the books in our National Geographic Kids collections are perfect for use in the classroom or as take-home books for family engagement in reading. Plus, we are now offering a special collection in Spanish! The collection includes 20 of the most popular National Geographic Kids titles with a range of Spanish reading levels appropriate for students from grades K to 4. This Spanish set, along with matching titles from the English sets, can be particularly helpful for ELL students from homes where the primary language is Spanish.

Stickered with Guided Reading Level!

Each book in these collections comes stickered on the back cover with the Guided Reading Level, which makes it easy to choose appropriate books for each student's reading skill.

Be the Change!

SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL LEARNING

Social and Environmental Action Collections

These two innovative collections provide thought-provoking information about social and environmental issues, along with age-appropriate ways to get involved and make a difference. These books are perfect to help foster classroom discussions, as well as for students to bring home to read and discuss with their parents.

Our Grades 2 to 4 collection focuses on environmental issues and shows students how they can take part in "going green" at home and at school. The Grades 4 to 8 collection provides a more in-depth look at some social and environmental issues, including climate change, and humans' impact on Earth's environments.

Excite your students about reading with fiction and nonfiction interactive "path" books!

The Choose Your Own Adventure series has a long history of engaging reluctant readers. In each book, there are many choices for readers to make that take the storyline in different directions and to different endings. The books are perfect for parents and children to read together, as they laugh and discuss which paths would be the best ones to take. And with many different paths and endings, your students will want to read each book again and again.

Each You Choose nonfiction title brings to life an era or event in history. The format of the books creates a powerful experience for readers, as they face the challenges and decisions that people encountered at pivotal moments in history. The intense action and difficult choices of what path to take will rivet readers from grades 3 to 8. Even reluctant readers will be caught up in history and learn more than they realize about events that have helped to shape the world we live in today.

The reader gets to choose paths through the book!

Graphic Novels

Grab the Interest of Even Your Most Reluctant Readers!

Graphic novels and graphic nonfiction can serve as exciting gateways to reading for struggling and reluctant readers. The rich and often humorous visuals will engross readers in the story and help them to develop the stamina to read for longer periods of time. The graphic format of these books also helps to increase comprehension, and the visuals offer contextual clues that boost vocabulary skills. The result is an enjoyable and successful reading experience and enhanced reading skills.

We have four curated sets of fiction graphic novels: a set for Gr. K–2, a set for Gr. 2–4, a set for Gr. 4–6, and a set of Spanish graphic novels for Gr. 3–6. We also have two sets of nonfiction titles in a graphic novel format (see next page). Titles include some of the most popular graphic novels and graphic nonfiction for children, and they are ideal for classroom libraries and family engagement in reading.

180 Days of... Workbooks

15 Titles!

For K to Gr. 5

Reading • Math • Summer Engagement

We now have 13 workbooks available that are perfect to use in the classroom or at home. Through engaging activities and practice, these workbooks will help to reinforce learning and build connections between home and school.

The 180 Days of Reading Workbooks will help students improve their reading skills with fun and effective daily practice activities. The workbooks use short, engaging passages to help students with reading comprehension, fluency, word study, and written responses. We also have workbooks available focused on phonics skills (see page 23).

The 180 Days of Math Workbooks provide daily practice in math. By spending just minutes a day completing a fun and engaging page in the workbook, students will be getting the extra support in math that so many need.

The Summer Blast Workbooks will help mitigate learning loss over the summer by keeping students engaged in fun learning activities. All of these books encourage active parent involvement, and all are designed to help students prepare for the next grade in school.

The Who Was...? series will excite your students about history through biographies of important historical figures from many fields, including science, sports, government, literature, and civil rights. Each book provides historical perspective about the era, as it discusses the person's life and how he or she overcame adversity to accomplish something of enduring significance. Also included in this collection are some books from two companion series, Where Is...? and What Was...?, which detail famous landmarks and key events in history.

Each book in this collection features 112 pages with black-and-white illustrations on almost every spread. Our exclusive collection has been curated to include the most popular figures and topics, as well as a diversity of ethnicities and backgrounds.

SUMMER PACKS

For Gr. PK to 5

6 English & 6 Bilingual!

Perfect to Support Reading at Home & Help Prevent Summer Learning Loss

Get parents and students engaged in reading and fun learning activities! We have 12 different packs for students entering grades K to 5, available in either English or in Spanish and English. These packs are perfect for use over the summer or to help jumpstart family engagement at the beginning of the school year.

Every pack includes a Summer Blast or Summer Bridge workbook with engaging learning activities that can be done independently by the student or with parent support. Each pack also includes 5 books for family engagement in reading. The workbook and books come pre-packed in a durable and water-proof fabric book pouch with a blank name card. Also available: English/Spanish packs that include a workbook with Spanish support, as well as five books that are either bilingual or dual-language (same title in English and Spanish).

To see a full list of contents for each pack, go to TreasureBayBooks.com/SummerPacks. For large orders, we are also happy to discuss putting together custom summer packs or book bundles to meet the exact needs of your students and your budget.
