TREASURE BAY

SPRING 2016

Phone: 1-800-476-6416
TreasureBayBooks.com

Dear Educator,

Treasure Bay is the leading source of supplemental books for parent involvement and Title I programs. Research has consistently shown that ongoing parent involvement results in significant gains in students' reading achievement, and over 10,000 schools and 4,000 Title I programs rely on Treasure Bay for the best research-based resources to engage parents and students in reading together.

Treasure Bay provides resources that make it simple and easy for parents to get involved and be successful in helping their children. The results: dramatic increases in parent involvement, improved reading scores, and former struggling and reluctant readers who have been transformed into avid readers. (For research data on improved reading scores, please see page 5.)

We have over 250 titles, including 37 new titles, available for students from Pre-K through 5th grade. Our new titles include We Both Read books focused on kindergarten readiness, more Spanish/English bilingual titles, and a new series for parent involvement that focuses on social and emotional learning.

Most schools place our books in classroom libraries and send the books home to engage students and parents in reading together. However, most of our books can be used with the same effectiveness by students, tutors, and reading buddies in the classroom.

A large print run of books this year has allowed us to pass along significant cost savings to you with price rollbacks (see pages 5 and 14). So now is the perfect time to place your order and maximize the advantages of parent involvement for your school or district!

With my best regards,

Don Panec, Publisher

Full-Year Satisfaction Guarantee

We invite you to use our books for a full school year. If at any point during that year you are not satisfied with the results of using the books, you may return them for a full refund.

How to Order

See page 33 for ordering information. You can use your own P.O., use our order form on pages 33 to 35, or order online at www.TreasureBayBooks.com. There is also a link at the top of this website to "Print a Blank Order Form." This Blank Order Form may make it easier for you to complete a P.O., since it lists all the items in this catalog so you can simply fill in the quantities you want to order. You can order by individual item, by sets for each series (one of each title), or even complete Treasure Bay classroom sets. If you have any questions, please call us toll-free at 1-800-476-6416 or send an e-mail to CustomerService@TreasureBayBooks.com.

The #1 Series for Parent Involvement in Reading

- Dramatically increases parent involvement in reading
- Particularly effective with reluctant and struggling readers
- Used by over 10,000 schools and over 4,000 Title I programs
- 60 titles in fiction and nonfiction for grades Pre-K through 4
- Helps meet numerous Common Core standards, including fluency requirements

To view all the correlations to Common Core Standards for the entire series, as well as each individual title in the series, go to www.TreasureBayBooks.com/correlations

The We Both Read books are so highly effective because they engage both children and parents in reading—and make it easy for them to be successful. The concept of the series is simple: each book is specially formatted for a parent and child to take turns reading aloud alternate pages. The parent's pages feature higher level text (at about a 5th grade reading level), while the child's pages feature text that matches the child's reading level.

This shared experience reduces the frustrations of beginning and struggling readers—and makes reading fun! Children get to practice reading at their skill level and they also have the opportunity to relax and listen as the fluent reading of more complex text is modeled for them. The result is increased comprehension, fluency, and support for their decoding skills, along with increased enthusiasm for reading.

Most schools provide sets of the books for classroom libraries, with teachers sending appropriate levels of books home on a lending basis. However, some schools provide these books to students and parents to help supplement or begin a home library. Plus, We Both Read has proven to be just as effective when used in the classroom for RTI programs, as well as for tutored-reading and buddy-reading programs.

Research Results: Using We Both Read Almost Triple the Increase in DIBELS Fluency Scores Confirmed by Independent Research

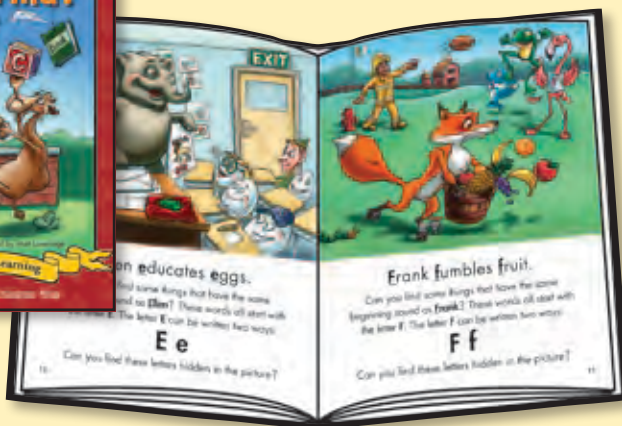

A large independent research study in four states has confirmed the effectiveness of the We Both Read series in improving fluency and reading scores. The study compared use of We Both Read for at-home reading versus other materials used by schools, including basal readers, leveled readers, and trade books. Among participants (reading at least 30 minutes per week with their parents), the use of the We Both Read series resulted in significantly greater improvement in their DIBELS oral reading fluency score.

Compared to participants using other at-home reading materials, the participants using the We Both Read series scored almost triple the increase in fluency improvement. The study also showed that use of the We Both Read series resulted in more independent reading time and significantly improved children's attitudes about reading. Plus, 100% of the teachers participating in the study reported that the paired reading format of the series proved to be a significant factor in increasing at-home reading time.

For a copy of the summary or the full research report, please send an e-mail to CustomerService@TreasureBayBooks.com (or you can download the reports online at www.TreasureBayBooks.com from the "Reviews and Research" page).

Most We Both Read books are designed to invite parents and children in grades K–3 to interact as they take turns reading. These three new books are designed primarily for pre-readers and early-emergent readers in Pre-K and Kindergarten. A parent or buddy may read the entire book to a child. However, throughout the book the child is invited to actively participate by looking at the pictures and responding to questions.

Can You Find? (An ABC Book)

By Sindy McKay, Illustrated by Matt Loveridge

(NF) Nonfiction

This book offers a lot of fun and humor as children learn to identify the letters in the alphabet and the sounds those letters make. Throughout the book children search for letters in the illustrations, along with various objects and animals that begin with the sound of that letter. By supporting the learning of letters and letter sounds, this book will help to build the beginning foundations for reading.

How Many? (A Counting Book)

By D.J. Panec, Illustrated by Katherine Blackmore

(NF) Nonfiction

This book offers an opportunity for children to practice counting and identifying the numbers from 1 to 10. Throughout the book, questions invite children to count the number of certain items in each picture. Other questions encourage children to look carefully at each picture and make a guess or reach a conclusion about what is happening in the scene. As they develop their skills through this book, children will become better prepared for both reading and mathematics.

Riddle Rhymes

By D.J. Panec

(NF) Nonfiction

These riddle rhymes offer a lot of fun as they help prepare students for reading by promoting awareness of rhyming sounds and words that rhyme. They also help develop critical-thinking skills, as students think about responses to each riddle. This book is ideal to use with children who are already beginning to read, as well as children who are still pre-readers.

Based on numerous requests, we are now offering Spanish/English Bilingual Editions of some of our most popular We Both Read books. These Bilingual Editions feature the same “paired reading” format as the English Editions, but the text is in both English and Spanish on each page. This makes these books perfect for paired reading in Spanish-language homes in which parents read Spanish, but little or no English. Plus, with text in both languages, children, as well as their and parents, have the opportunity to increase their English vocabulary and practice their skills in reading English. The books are also popular for use in school, particularly for Spanish and Bilingual programs.

GREAT STORY

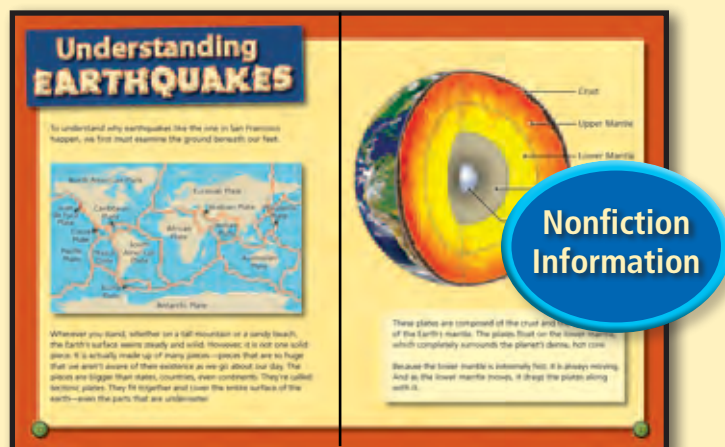

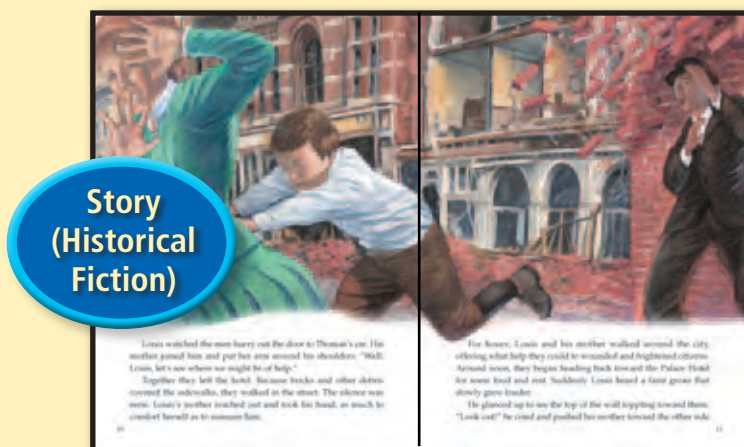

COOL FACTS

Fiction and Nonfiction Text on the Same Topic in Each Book!

Meet Common Core requirements for pairing two texts on the same topic with this innovative series! Research shows that reading a fictional story will ignite a reader's curiosity and interest in nonfiction information on the same subject. The first half of each book is a fictional story. Then, the second half presents nonfiction information on the same subject as the story.

Get Parents Involved!

The story in each book is designed to be at a slightly lower reading level than the nonfiction content. After reading the story, the increased interest in the subject will motivate most children to stretch to a slightly higher reading level. To provide assistance in reading and discussion of the subject matter, the introduction also encourages parent involvement, particularly for the nonfiction section. In addition, most titles include related activities for parents and children to do together.

Each book includes a fictional story and nonfiction text!

Earthquake!

STORY: Shaken to the Ground

Louis and his family arrive in San Francisco on April 17, 1906. The next day, one of the most devastating earthquakes in history rocks the city. Many of the buildings crumble and most of the rest are destroyed in the fires that follow. Louis resolves to help find a way to construct buildings that can survive a great earthquake.

FACTS: About Earthquakes

Earthquakes are one of the most powerful and feared forces of nature. Discover how and why earthquakes happen and why some earthquakes cause little destruction, while others cause such devastation. Learn all this and much more in this fascinating look at earthquakes!

We guarantee your students will love reading these books—even your reluctant and struggling readers. The series is perfect for independent reading, as well as reading together with a buddy, a tutor, or a parent. The books feature hilarious conversations between two characters, Elephant and Piggie. Two readers can easily take turns reading: each reader simply reads the part of one of the characters (if they can stop laughing!).

The Elephant and Piggie books are all written and illustrated by Mo Willems, the author of Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus and winner of three Caldecott Honor Awards. He has also twice won the Theodor Seuss Geisel Medal, honoring the year's best beginning reader title, for his Elephant and Piggie books.

"These books will easily take their place alongside Seuss and Eastman as classics in the beginning-reader genre."

"Delightful choreography of rhythm, rhyme, and repetition that begs to be read aloud in tandem by children and adults, or by any pairing of beginning readers."

SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL (STARRED REVIEW)

Paired Reading for Fun & Easy Family Engagement! (Also Perfect For Reading Tutors and Reading Buddies)

These books are all Common Core aligned and are specifically designed for a pair of readers to take turns reading. The color-coded text in the books cues each reader for their turn, the illustrations are witty and playful, and the short tales are told with infectious rhythms and rhymes (each book contains 8 to 12 humorous stories).

The books have received numerous awards and accolades from educators and librarians around the country. Very Short Stories to Read Together was a 2002 ALA Notable Book for Children. Very Short Fairy Tales was a 2004 Gryphon Award Honor Book and a 2005 NCTE Notable Book for Children in the Language Arts. And in 2008, the author, Mary Ann Hoberman, was named Children's Poet Laureate.

"I am an educational consultant. . . . One of the biggest challenges this year is the lack of a Common Core curriculum for Math. Many students are not given enough practice questions to work on. These books provide four pages of questions for each standard. . . . I encourage all the schools I work with to purchase a copy of this book for each teacher."

"Writing to Texts has made planning and implementing Common Core writing lessons much easier. The practice texts and prompts are clearly written and accessible for my students, many of whom are reading significantly below grade level. I've seen real, measurable improvement in my students' writing with this resource."

PARENT WORKSHOPS

New! Auto-Play Mode with Full Audio & Video

Perfect for Family Literacy Nights and as an Online Resource for Parents

Everything you need for a great parent workshop is included! The CD-ROMs include the Presentations, the Handouts for the participants, and a comprehensive Presenter's Guide. Presentations are provided in PowerPoint, as well as PDF's (for overhead presentations).

Every workshop is available for you to present in User-Presentation Mode. Plus, the Reading Together workshop is available with an Auto-Play mode: simply start the PowerPoint and it will play through the entire presentation, including professional audio and video. Nothing could be easier! You can even post the presentation on your website as an additional parent resource.

All workshops can be easily tailored to your audience and desired length of time. And, while these workshops are primarily designed for parents, they can also be great workshops for classroom teachers and literacy tutors!

Research based and developed with reading specialists, Bruce Johnson, M.Ed., and Dorothy Taguchi, Ph.D.

Reading Together and We Both Read[®]

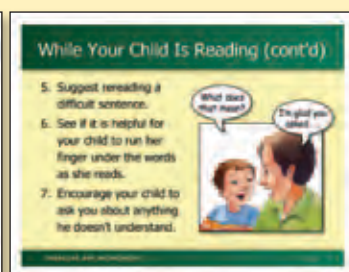

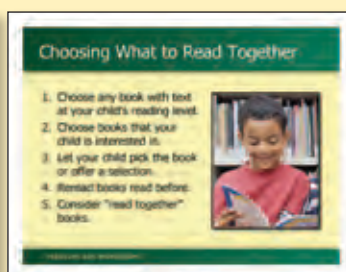

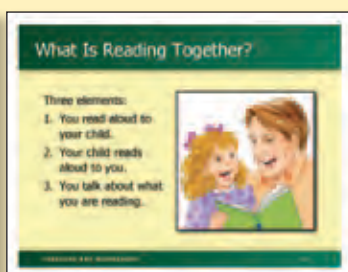

These two mini-workshops (30 to 45 minutes each) will motivate parents to get more involved in reading with their children and teach them skills they can use to maximize the benefits of reading together.

The first workshop covers best practices in reading together. Parents will learn why reading together is important, three styles of reading together (choral reading, echo reading, and shared reading), skills to use when reading to their child, and skills to use when their child is reading to them.

The second workshop covers books specifically designed for reading together, focusing primarily on use of the We Both Read series. This section includes information on how to maximize the benefits of using We Both Read and offers parents an opportunity to practice using the books.

Purchase includes a school-wide license to modify and present the workshop.

Starting Off Right with Phonemic Awareness and Phonics

Complements use of the We Read Phonics series

ISBN: 978-1-60115-400-2

$49.95

Windows and Mac compatible

For presentations to parents, there are two mini-workshops included, one focusing on phonemic awareness and one focusing on phonics skills. A longer and more comprehensive version, combining both workshops, is included for presentation to classroom teachers and aides. Presentation time and materials for all workshops can be easily tailored to meet your needs.

The phonemic awareness presentation focuses on verbal games and activities parents can do to help prepare their children for reading. Parents will learn how to help their child develop the ability to hear, identify, segment, and blend the individual sounds in spoken words.

The phonics presentation focuses on the relationship between sounds and letters and how to blend letter sounds together to decode written words. Parents will learn simple games and activities they can do anytime with their child to reinforce phonics skills in reading.

Purchase of this CD-ROM includes a school-wide license to modify and present the workshops.

Helping Your Child Get Ready to Read

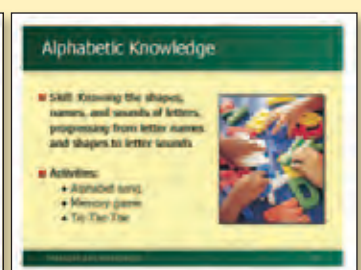

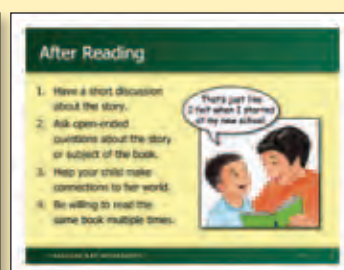

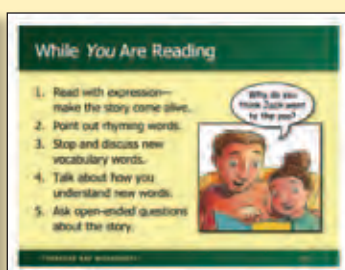

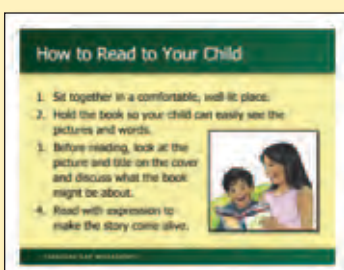

This workshop is designed to let parents know what they can do to help their children be better prepared for reading. An ideal time to present this workshop is in the first half of kindergarten or before formal reading instruction begins.

The first section of the workshop covers reading to children, as well as fun activities to do with children to help develop phonemic awareness. The workshop not only shows how important it is to read to children, but also covers how parents can maximize the benefits of reading aloud.

The second section of the workshop includes fun activities to help children learn the names and sounds of the letters in the alphabet. It also includes how parents can begin to introduce reading together activities, even with children who are prereaders.

Each section of the workshop can be presented in about 30 minutes. Please note that much of the material in this workshop is covered in the other two workshops above. However, this workshop is tailored specifically to parents of prereaders.

Purchase of this CD-ROM includes a school-wide license to modify and present the workshop.
