Who Took the Cookbook?

Parent's Introduction

Welcome to We Read Phonics! This series is designed to help you assist your child in reading. Each book includes a story, as well as some simple word games to play with your child. The games focus on the phonics skills and sight words your child will use in reading the story.

Here are some recommendations for using this book with your child:

1 Word Play

There are word games both before and after the story. Make these games fun and playful. If your child becomes bored or frustrated, play a different game or take a break.

I can make the word clown!

Many of the games require printed materials (for example, sight word cards). You can print free game materials from your computer by going online to www.WeReadPhonics.com and clicking on the Game Materials link for this title. However, game materials can also be easily made with paper and a marker—and making them with your child can be a great learning activity.

2 Read the Story

After some word play, read the story aloud to your child—or read the story together, by reading aloud at the same time or by taking turns. As you and your child read, move your finger under the words.

Next, have your child read the entire story to you while you follow along with your finger under the words. If there is some difficulty with a word, either help your child to sound it out or wait about five seconds and then say the word.

3 Discuss and Read Again

After reading the story, talk about it with your child. Ask questions like, “What happened in the story?” and “What was the best part?” It will be helpful for your child to read this story to you several times. Another great way for your child to practice is by reading the book to a younger sibling, a pet, or even a stuffed animal!

LEVEL

7

Level 7 introduces words with vowel combinations “ou” and “ow” (as in out and owl), “oi” and “oy” (as in oil and boy), “aw” (as in hawk), “oo” (as in book), and “oo” (as in cool).

Phonics Game

Alphabet Soup

Creating words using certain letter combinations will help your child read this story.

Materials:

Option 1—Fast and Easy: To print free game materials from your computer, go online to www.WeReadPhonics.com, then go to this book title and click on the link to “View & Print: Game Materials.”

Option 2—Make Your Own: You'll need thick paper or cardboard; scissors; pencils, crayons, or markers; small cooking pot and stirring spoon. Cut thirty 2 x 2 inch squares from the paper or cardboard and print letter and letter combinations on the squares. Make one each with c, b, f, g, m, n, s, ch, th, br, cr, and cl. Make two each with d, k, l, t, sh, oo, ou, ow, and aw.

- 1 Place the letters into a pretend pot of soup and stir the pot! Then players take turns taking letters from the pot. When a player can make a word by putting his letters together, he makes and reads the word out loud. Once a word is made, the player can use the letters in that word (and other letters) to make new words. If scoring, give a point for each word that is made.
- 2 Players take turns taking letters and making words. Once a player has nine letters, he must put one letter back in the pot in order to take another letter.
- 3 If scoring, the word cookbook can be a bonus word worth an extra point. If a player can make cookbook and chow at the same time, he automatically wins!
- 4 The winner is the first player to score 12 points. Then, put all the letters back into the pretend pot of soup and play again!

Some words that can be made with these letters include look, cookbook, good, food, shook, crook, crowd, brown, clown, chow, shout, mouth, and saw.

Sight Word Game

Memory

This is a fun way to practice recognizing some sight words used in the story.

Materials:

Option 1—Fast and Easy: To print free game materials from your computer, go online to www.WeReadPhonics.com, then go to this book title and click on the link to "View & Print: Game Materials."

Option 2—Make Your Own: You'll need 18 index cards and a marker. Write each word listed on the right on two cards. You will now have two sets of cards.

- 1 Using one set of cards, ask your child to repeat each word after you. Shuffle both decks of cards together, and place them face down in a grid pattern.
- 2 The first player turns over one card and says the word, then turns over a second card and says the word. If the cards match, the player takes those cards and continues to play. If they don't match, both cards are turned over, and it's the next player's turn.
- 3 Keep the cards. You can make more cards with other We Read Phonics books and combine the cards for even bigger games!

The cook in our lunchroom makes really good chow.
The food that she makes has us all shouting "Wow!"

Her treats are outstanding.
Her beets make us proud.
She broils up chicken
that draws a big crowd.

She simmers up cheese
that we like on our chips.
Her hot toasted cookies
give joy to our lips.

We love the sweet taffy
she made yesterday.

If food got a grade, hers would get a big "A"!

However, today
it is awful and foul!
The mouthful I took I spit out in a towel.

The salad was droopy.

The green beans were brown.

We all hollered "Yuck!" and that made the cook frown.

The eggs were not boiled.

The sausage was raw.

It was really disgusting—
the things that we saw!

One student was pouting.
She started to wail.

"I may just throw up! Would you grab me a pail?"
