

Up and away

Butterflies are always moving around. They never stay still for long.

All butterflies have four big, wide wings.

They flap all four wings together.

The wings are covered in tiny scales. You can see them under a microscope.

Scale

Some butterflies flap their wings 70 times every second.

